

Aquaculture/Fisheries Field Day

October 2, 2008 - 8:30 a.m. to noon

University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Aquaculture Research Station

(Off Highway 79 north of Pine Bluff. Turn on Oliver Road next to the new stadium and follow the signs)

In conjunction with the Catfish Farmers of Arkansas Association meeting

Breaks and refreshments sponsored by the Arkansas Bait and Ornamental Fish Growers Association and Aquacenter Inc.

Tractor Tours

- ▶ The New Flexible Panel Grading Sock
- ▶ Corn Gluten and Other Alternative Feeds: The Latest Study Results
- ▶ The Secret to Making Brigade Work for You
- ▶ Can More Baitfish and Catfish be Produced with More Aeration? Results of Commercial Pond Trials
- ▶ Arkansas River Largemouth Bass: Status of the Fishery from Dumas to Fort Smith

For more information

Nathan Stone
Aquaculture/Fisheries Center
University of Arkansas
at Pine Bluff
1200 North University Drive
Mail Slot 4912
Pine Bluff, AR 71601
Phone: (870) 575-8138
Fax: (870) 575-4638
E-mail: nstone@uaex.edu
<http://www.uaex.edu/aqfi/>

Walking Tours

- ▶ Prebiotics in Baitfish Feed: Are They Worth the Money?
- ▶ Visceral Toxicosis of Catfish (VTC): New Discoveries from Spring 2008
- ▶ Preventing Winter Weight Loss in Catfish: Hunger is Not Seasonal
- ▶ From the Pond to the Gas Tank: Algae and Biofuels
- ▶ Using the State of Arkansas Certification Program to Sell More Bait and Ornamental Fish
- ▶ Growing Rice in Catfish Ponds
- ▶ The Best Diets for Broodstock and Fry: It's Not What You Think

Other Highlights

- ▶ Trap Shoot - Sponsored by Southern Aquaculture Supply
- ▶ Snagging Competition
Sponsored by Cajun Gold
- ▶ Poster Session

Cooperative Extension Program, University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff,
U.S. Department of Agriculture and County Governments Cooperating
Accredited by North Central Association of Colleges & Schools
Commission on Institutions of Higher Education
30 N. LaSalle, Suite 2400, Chicago, Illinois 60602-2504
1-800-621-7440/FAX: 312-263-7462
An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action University