Practice Swine Breed Contest

Steven M. Jones
Associate Professor – L:ivestock
Identify...

Berkshire

Photo: National Swine Registry
Identify:

Chester White

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Photo: Oklahoma State University

Pietrain
Identify...

Hereford

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify... Duroc

Photo: National Swine Registry
Identify...

Originated in England
Black in Color
Distinctive White Belt
Ears are Erect
A Larger Breed of Swine
Excellent Carcass Quality

Hampshire
Identify...

Poland China

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Landrace

Photo: National Swine Registry
Identify...

Red Wattle

Photo: Cecil Edgar/Oklahoma State University
Identify...

Originated from the Poland China Breed of Swine, so it originated in the USA

Black & White in Color

Ears are Drooping

Excellent Rate of Gain

Excellent Feed Efficiency

Productive, Gentle, Durable

Spot
Identify...

Originated in USA
Red & White in Color
The face & at least two feet must be white
Swirls not Registrable
Ears are Drooping
Prolific
Good Mothers

Hereford
Identify...

Tamworth
Identify...

Originated in Pennsylvania (Chester County), USA

White (all white) in Color

Ears are Drooping

Has acquired the nickname of “the white duroc”

Good Carcass Quality

Chester White
Identify...

Photo: Unknown Source

Hampshire
Identify...

Duroc
Identify…

Yorkshire

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify…

Berkshire

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Red Wattle

Photo: Cecil Edgar/Oklahoma State University
Identify...

- Originated in Denmark
- White (all white) in Color
- Ears are Large & Drooping
- Very Long Bodied, some even have an extra pair or set of ribs
- Very Prolific Sows
- Excellent Milkers

Landrace
Identify...

Originated in the USA
Black in Color
Six White Points...snout, tail, & four legs
Ears are Drooping
Excellent Rate of Gain
Sound Feet & Legs

Poland China
Identify...

Photo: Michael VonLuttwitz

Tamworth
Identify...

Hereford

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Spot

Photo: National Swine Registry
Identify...

Originated in New Caledonia
Red in Color
Must possess pair of Wattles
A slightly smaller breed
Ears are Erect
Very Lean Carcasses
Gentle & Good Natured

Red Wattle
Identify...

Hampshire

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify

Chester White

Photo: National Swine Registry
Identify...

Pietrain

Photo: Oklahoma State University
Identify...

Originated in England
Black in Color
Six White Points...snout, tail, & four legs
Ears are Erect
Excellent Carcass Quality

Berkshire
Identify...

Poland China

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Yorkshire

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Landrace

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Duroc

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Hampshire

Photo: National Swine Registry
Identify...

Photo: Unknown Source

Spot
Identify...

Originated in England

Red in Color, with Erect Ears

A Very Deep-Sided Pig, due to being a bacon-type pig

Longer Legged/Necked and more narrow, again due to being a bacon-type pig

Tamworth
Identify...

Red Wattle

Photo: Cecil Edgar/Oklahoma State University
Identify...

Yorkshire

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Poland China

Photo: National Swine Registry
Identify...

Berkshire

Photo: Unknown Source
Originated in Belgium
White with Black Spots
Spots, with Pigment Rings
Medium Sized Breed
Shorter Legged, Erect Ears
Large & Bulging Hams

Pietrain
Identify...

Originated in the USA from three different locations;

Yellowish to Red in Color

No Markings, Solid Color

Ears are Drooping

Good Carcass Quality

Duroc
Identify...

Photo: Unknown Source

Spot
Chester White

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Hereford

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Originated in England
White (all white) in Color
Ears are Erect
Good Carcass Quality
Prolific & Excellent Milkers
“The Mother Breed”

Yorkshire
Identify...

Tamworth

Photo: Unknown Source
Identify...

Pietrain

Photo: Oklahoma State University
Identify...

Photo: Unknown Source

Landrace