

Handbook for the Arkansas County Agricultural Agents Association

Affiliated with the National Association of County Agricultural Agents

Forward

On behalf of the Officers, Directors, and Membership of the Arkansas County Agricultural Agents' Association – it has been our pleasure to prepare this handbook; so that you may become more familiar with the activities, accomplishments, and duties of the membership of the County Agricultural Agents' Association – both at the state and national level.

The object of this Association is to promote high standards of service to the people of Arkansas, professional improvement of the members of the ACAAA, and to promote the total Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service in the state.

Thomas E. Phillips, Chairman

What is the County Agents' Association?

The Arkansas County Agents Association is a professional organization which is designed to give dignity to, and stimulate a personal pride in the opportunity to serve the people of Arkansas in a profession as important as agriculture and related fields.

Your Association has a responsibility in carrying the message of the Land-Grant College to the people. Through this organization we shall have the opportunity of demonstrating the value of teamwork in every branch of the Land-Grant College.

The Association is always interested in the growth and improvement of the University and in improving ourselves professionally so that we may represent the University at its best. We must also act as a recruiting agent for getting more students enrolled in the College of Agriculture.

The Arkansas County Agricultural Agents' Association is a member of the National Association of County Agents, sending delegates to the National Association Annual Meeting each year.

The Arkansas County Agricultural Agents' Association cooperates with the Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service, United States Department of Agriculture and other Agricultural Agencies.

The objectives of this organization shall be to encourage a high standard of professional performance; to promote a high degree of cooperation and loyalty; to improve the effectiveness of Cooperative Extension work, and to carry out the policies and programs of the Land-Grant Colleges in the United States.

The County Extension Agent

Who is this person -- the County Extension Agent?

As an employee of local, state, and federal unies of government; the agent is an agent for change a catalyst for progress.

The agent is the educational representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture as well as a faculty member of his state's Land-Grant University.

As a public servant, the agent draws upon the government and educational institutions for support—benefiting both private industry and individual citizens.

The County Extension Agent is a Teacher

A representative of the Extension Service - - an extension of the educational arm of his Land-Grant University – the County Extension Agent shows people how to apply the newest scientific and technological knowhow to their operations and uses the resources of his cooperators in industry. Through Extension Service programs for 4-H and other youth, the County Extension Agent helps young people develop knowledge and skills.

Duties of Committee Chairmen of the Arkansas County Agricultural Agents' Association

When agents are elected to serve the ACAA in the capacity of a committee chairman, agents acceptance of this responsibility will require additional time, effort, and sacrifice on agents part. Due to the great importance of committee work in ACAA, agents are encouraged to uphold the high ideals of the County Extension Agent profession in accordance with it's Constitution and By-Laws including the Association policy. Through continued observance of these ideals and consideration of the following duties as chairman.

State Committee Chairs are appointed by the President Elect and serve from the end of one NACAA AM/PIC through the end of the next NACAA AM/PIC.
