

ACAAA Mission Statement

The Arkansas County Agricultural Agent's Association is a professional organization dedicated to providing professional improvement and leadership opportunities to its members. In addition, the Association works to improve conditions of work, salaries, and benefits for all Extension workers.

The Association promotes professionalism and encourages the exchange of program ideas among members. Members are recognized for effective programs, superior achievement, and for serving the Association through leadership activities.