All meetings and activities announced in this informational packet are open to all youth between the ages of 5 and 19 without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability, or any other legally protected status. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (large print, audiotapes, etc.) should notify the county Extension office as soon as possible prior to the activity. The Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service is an Affirmative Action / Equal Opportunity Employer.
The "Craighead County 4-H Guide" has been prepared to give you an overview of the purpose of the 4-H program as well as a brief look at the many opportunities available to your family.

We find that behind most successful 4-H members stands a 4-H parent who encourages, guides, and supports his or her child. We hope you too will become interested in the 4-H program by helping your child. Make 4-H a family affair.

4-H offers an opportunity for young people to participate in projects. These projects help members learn how to make decisions and do tasks in the home, school, or community. Members use their head, heart, hands, and health to learn by doing.

4-H members have the opportunity to:

* Be leaders & followers
* Learn by doing
* Accept responsibility
* Practice citizenship
* Earn recognition & awards
* Build character
* Maintain records

* Attend camps
* Get along with others
* Make decisions
* Exhibit their efforts
* Be a part of a positive peer group
* Receive scholarships

The adults working with your local 4-H club are volunteers. These unpaid volunteers share their time, talents and caring attitudes. The reasons for volunteering differ among the adults, but all are concerned that children have a positive learning experience.

Best wishes for an enjoyable 4-H learning experience! Watch your monthly newsletter for dates and prices (if any) for upcoming events.

It is FREE to join 4-H. We get no outside funding from any source, so we will have various fundraisers throughout the year to support our organization. The Craighead County 4-H Foundation oversees the spending of funds.

WHAT IS 4-H?

4-H is the official youth organization of the Cooperative Extension Service, a division of the University of Arkansas. It is an informal education program for boys and girls. 4-H is conducted locally by volunteer leaders in cooperation with County Extension personnel.

4-H has young people sharing, doing, and learning together in all kinds of projects, events, and activities, with guidance from their families, volunteer leaders and Extension personnel. Members choose projects that interest them and everyday activities that they experience where they live. Group activities such as meetings, workshops, tours, camps, and competitive activities provide additional learning experiences.

All meetings and activities are open to all youth between the ages of 5 and 19 without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, or disability. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication or program information (large print, audiotapes, etc.) should notify the County Extension office as soon as possible prior to the activity. Most 4-H clubs meet once or twice a month. During these meetings, they conduct business, share ideas, learn new skills, participate in decision making, and enjoy recreational activities. 4-H members develop self-confidence, leadership, and become involved in community service activities.

PURPOSE OF 4-H

The purpose of 4-H is two-fold:

* To provide the opportunity for parents and other interested adults to work with youth in their development.

* To provide real life experiences for youth through a fun, learn-by-doing, action-oriented, and practical program.

Volunteers serve as 4-H leaders to plan and carry out organized learning experiences with youth. Many of the learning experiences are at the local club level. The many county, regional and state activities supplement and support those activities carried out at the local level.
WHY AND WHEN DID 4-H ORIGINATE?

4-H work, as we know it, began around the year 1900 as a means of reaching adults with improved farm and home practices. American farmers had experienced poor economic times for 30 years. To try a “new” recommended farm practice would have been risky business for the farmer of that day. In 1902, a few school teachers developed some crop demonstrations with their students who, in turn, shared their successes with their parents.

These school projects developed into small groups covering a single topic such as beef, corn, gardening, and canning. By 1903, they were called 3-H clubs, and in 1911, the name 4-H was finally adopted.

The first 4-H type club in Arkansas is reported to have been in White County in 1908. It was a corn club with 40 members. Corn clubs, cotton clubs, pig clubs and canning clubs were all in operation in Arkansas by 1914.

Have the 4-H objectives changed since the early days? Yes! Today, members are no longer limited to agriculture projects. 4-H offers the urban as well as the rural young person the opportunity to learn, to develop leadership abilities, and become informed and effective citizens.

HOW WILL CHILDREN BENEFIT FROM 4-H MEMBERSHIP?

From a child’s perspective, 4-H’ers benefit from membership because they:

* Learn, make, or do things that appeal to and are meaningful to them.
* Make friends, belong to a group, give and receive acceptance and affection.
* Have a good time—which makes learning appealing and enjoyable.

From an adult perspective, 4-H is beneficial because each 4-H’er will one day become a contributing and caring member of his or her community through the knowledge and life skills he or she learned in 4-H. These youngsters will learn how to:

* Develop an inquiring mind and a desire to learn
* Make decisions and solve problems
* Relate to and work with other people
* Develop a concern for their community and the people in it
* Build their self confidence
4-H EMBLEMS AND SYMBOLS

EMBLEM: The national 4-H emblem is a four-leaf clover with the letter "H" on each leaf.

THE 4-H'S: The 4-H's stand for Head, Heart, Hand and Health. These 4-H’s represent the four-fold training and development in which members participate. This meaning is given in the pledge below.

PLEDGE: All 4-H members should learn the 4-H pledge.

I pledge:
   My HEAD to clearer thinking,
   My HEART to greater loyalty,
   My HANDS to larger service, and
   My HEALTH to better living, for my club, my community, my country, my world.

MOTTO: The 4-H motto, "To Make the Best Better," should be the objective of every member and leader.

SLOGAN: "Learn By Doing"

COLORS: Green and white are the 4-H colors. The white background of the flag symbolizes purity; the green 4-H emblem is nature's most common color in the great outdoors and is the color of springtime, life, and youth.
4-H PARENT'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Parent interest and encouragement are major contributions to young 4-H'ers. If parents are involved right from the beginning, chances are significantly greater for a successful 4-H experience for the child or teen.

- Assist your child in selecting a 4-H project he/she can do and will enjoy.

- Read the project book your child receives. You'll find ways you can help your child with the project.

- Attend 4-H club meetings and activities with your child. This will help you understand the type of assistance your child needs.

- Read the 4-H mail that comes to your home. This will help keep you up to date, and you will be able to remind your child of upcoming events and due dates.

- Encourage your child to attend 4-H meetings and activities. See that your child has transportation to get to the events.

- Offer to assist the 4-H club leaders with specific tasks.

- Provide light refreshments for your child's club meeting when asked.

- Lend your kitchen, backyard, living room, garage, or basement for an occasional 4-H meeting when requested.

- Share a hobby, skill, or interest of yours with 4-H club members during a meeting workshop.

- Assist your child in keeping records on his/her 4-H work. 4-H members must keep a written record of what they do in 4-H; this record is turned in to the County Extension Office on the fourth Monday in January. The journal includes 4-H project work, demonstrations, awards received, leadership positions held, and community service involvement. (See page 10 for more on record keeping.)

- Guide and encourage your child, but avoid doing the project for him/her. Working on a project together can be fun for both you and your child.
4-H MEMBER'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Some of the major responsibilities of the 4-H member are:

• Complete 4Honline Registration (www.arkansas.4honline.com)
  Registration is due annually by October 1 of the current year.

• Select one or two 4-H projects with the help of your parents.

• Read the 4-H project book related to your project(s) and complete the activities in the book. (Members are not limited to activities in the book and may want to do other activities relating to the project.)

• Attend and participate in 4-H club activities, community service, and fund-raising.

• Help plan and support 4-H club activities, community service, and fund-raising.

• Read 4-H mail that comes to your home. Share the information with your parents.

• Keep a current, up-to-date 4-H calendar of meetings and activities. Ask parents to remind you of upcoming events and due dates.

• Ask your parent, relative, or other adult to serve as a 4-H project helper.

• Serve as a club officer or on a committee when asked.

• Take an active part in the 4-H club meeting.

• Prepare a written record of your 4-H project work and turn it in to the 4-H leader at the proper time.

• Share a hobby, skill, or interest of yours with other 4-H members at a meeting or a workshop.

• Keep parents informed about 4-H meeting, projects, and activities.

• Do at least one method demonstration or illustrated talk on your 4-H project.

• Conduct yourself at all times in a manner that would be a credit to you, your family, your 4-H club, and your county.

• Talk about 4-H to friends and invite them to become 4-H members.
• Develop an exhibit about your 4-H project. Take it to your club meeting to show what you have accomplished in your project.

Junior and Senior 4-H Members
4-H members are divided into two divisions for most competitive activities. Junior members must have reached their 9th birthday and have not passed their 14th birthday, as of January 1 of the current year. Senior members must be 14 on or before January 1 of the current year and must not have passed their 19th birthday by January 1.

4-H Cloverbuds
Any youth age 5, 6, 7, or 8, who participates in any of the above clubs or groups. Cloverbud members are not eligible to compete in district competitive activities. However, they may participate in educational activities and special "Cloverbud Events." All county activities have a Cloverbud division.

Main or Organizational Leader
A volunteer who is responsible for the organizational part of a 4-H club. All leaders must complete required Youth Protection Policy paperwork. Main leaders attend regularly scheduled leaders meetings and trainings.

Project Leader
A volunteer who helps 4-H members as they learn, make, or do something. This person can be a 4-H parent who agrees to help with a project. This may also be a teen leader or a person from the community who has knowledge in a particular subject matter or project area.

Teen Leader
A 4-H member who is 13 years of age or older is eligible to be a teen leader. They take an active part in helping the younger members in the club. By doing this, they grow, mature, and develop leadership skills.
4-H Agents
Professionals who guide, teach, and administer the 4-H program. They are faculty members of the University of Arkansas.

4-H PROJECTS

A 4-H project consists of what a 4-H'er learns, makes or does. For example, some projects are to learn to grow a garden, make a dress or train a dog.

4-H members should take at least one project each year and complete records for that project. Younger 4-H'ers should limit themselves to one or two projects per year. Older 4-H'ers may want to take three or four.

Your 4-H club will try to locate a project leader when there are three or more members enrolled in a project. The project leader will notify members when and where the project meetings will be held. When there is no project leader, the member will be expected to work individually. As a family, you can use the 4-H project literature to guide your learning.

The family of a 4-H'er should take an active interest in his/her project. They should assist, encourage, and offer advice, but remember, the 4-H'er learns by doing.

4-H JOURNALS

The Arkansas 4-H Journal is one place to show others what you have accomplished in your 4-H career. Completing the journal is much like completing a portfolio. Through your journal, you exhibit your accomplishments and how you have developed responsibility by keeping records. Throughout your 4-H career, you will find your journal useful in evaluating past achievements and in making improvements in future plans.

The Arkansas 4-H Journal was formally known as the 4-H Record book. It is now referred to as the Arkansas 4-H Journal. This restructuring took place in 2006 for the 2007 4-H Journal judging. There are still four levels of journal guidelines: Cloverbud (ages 5–8), Beginner (9–12), Intermediate (13–15), and Advanced (16–19). All four levels have specific guidelines. These guidelines are included with each report form, which can be downloaded from our website at www.uaex.edu or obtained in the county office. Report form covers are available for $3.00 at the County Extension Office.

Beginning with the Advanced Record Book winners named in 2000: Advanced Journal winners must apply for Category B scholarships (available to current or former state advanced journal winners only) the year they will graduate from high school. To be eligible for these scholarships, graduating high school seniors or those already in college or a post-secondary institution, MUST submit a completed scholarship application (due Feb. 1) and must have submitted an application to the college or institution of higher learning of their choice. If an advanced winner is applying for a journal scholarship in a year AFTER the year they are named a journal winner, he or she will only submit a scholarship application.

4-H journals should be filled out completely, accurately, and neatly. Parents may oversee the child's work and may even type the book for the 4-H'er; however, the activities must be done by the 4-H'er. Encourage your child to work in their 4-H journal throughout the year. 4-H Journals are due in the County Extension Office in January—check with your leader and in the 4-H Clover News for the exact dates. The 4-H reporting year is from January to December of each calendar year.

4-H'ers submitting journals are invited to participate in special 4-H recognition activities. Everyone who turns in a record book journal is invited to attend the annual 4-H Achievement Banquet at no cost to them. Senior books are submitted for state judging and may qualify for state and national awards, which include trips and scholarships.
