Updates on 4-H County Council Decisions

The council designed county t-shirts this year. Shirts will be black with neon-green writing. On the front will be an outline of the state of Arkansas with a 4 leaf clover over Logan County and on the back will be what the 4 H's represent. An order form is on the last page of this newsletter for your convenience. Just fill out and return to the Extension office or you may call either office with your order. The dates for County Round-up and O'Rama were set. Round-up will be Friday, April 4 and the theme will be "Western." We will have BBQ catered for the meal. The council also suggested it be held in Magazine in the school cafeteria. The date of the County O'rama is Saturday, April 26 and it will be held in Paris at the Fairgrounds.

Council members discussed and voted to have a county outing during spring break to a Laser Tag facility. Finally, they decided to go to Silver Dollar City in Branson on the Reward trip after O'rama this year. If you do a talk at County O'rama, you qualify for the Silver Dollar City Reward Trip! Thank you to everyone who submitted Record Books this year! They were excellent quality and showed that you worked very hard on your 4-H projects!

Congratulations to Audra (12) and JoLea (10) B. of the Lariats Driggs 4-H Club!

Both of these Logan County 4-Hers won awards for their photographs in the Iowa Camera Corp competition this year! The theme for 2013 was “Interpretation and Illustration”. Participants were given 4 poems written by former 4-H member and poet, Morgan Grayce Willow. 4-Hers were challenged to read these poems and create photographs that fit the essence of the poems, creating a visual image that interpreted the poems. JoLea’s photo, Tassel Close-up, won for the poem Seasoning. Audra’s photo, Girl Pouring Water, won for the poem Blessing.

They were also both selected as Ozark District Record Book winners in the project area of Photography. Way to go, girls!

Above are just a few pictures of the thirty-seven Logan County 4-Hers, family members, and friends who attended the Arkansas Razorback Basketball game in Fayetteville on Saturday, March 1.
