Speakers:
Kyle Cunningham – Arkansas Forest Resources Center
Mark Cutrer – Arkansas Forestry Commission
Becky McPeake – Arkansas Forest Resources Center
Brady Self – Mississippi State University-CFR
Tamara Walkingstick – Arkansas Forest Resources Center

Station address: 70 Experiment Station Drive, Batesville AR, 72501
Registration deadline November 2, 2015 (no refunds after deadline)
Limited to 30 attendees
Training materials notebook included

Day 1:
12:30 p.m. Registration
1:00 p.m. Evaluating the Management Potential of Hardwood Stands
1:45 p.m. Natural Regeneration of Hardwood Stands with Rx Burns and Herbicides
2:30 p.m. Threats to Arkansas’ Hardwood Forests
3:00 p.m. Break
3:15 p.m. Considerations When Conducting a Prescribed Burn
3:45 p.m. Forestry Ethics
5:00 p.m. Fish Fry at the Station

Day 2:
7:30 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts, head to field
8:00 a.m. Stand Evaluation Exercise
12:00 p.m. Lunch
1:00 p.m. Field Site Visits

Mail registration information (use form below) and $95.00 fee per person (payable to “UACES”) to:
AFRC Hardwood Management Training
c/o Kyle Cunningham
UA Coop. Extension Service
2301 S. University Avenue
Little Rock, AR 72204
kcunningham@uaex.edu
501-671-2145

AFRC Hardwood Management Training, UA Livestock and Forestry Research Station, November 10th and 11th, 2015

*To pay by credit card call Ronia, mention Hardwood Management Training: 501-671-2052
If using a credit card, please also email your contact information to kcunningham@uaex.edu

Name ________________________________________________ (please print, will appear on name tag)
Mailing address __________________________________________
City ______________ State _______ County __________________
Phone __________________ E-mail ___________________________

Affiliation (company, etc.) ___________________________ Amount enclosed ($95 per person) $ _________