

PROTECT YOUR CHILDREN

Name a Guardian for Them

Use a will to name a guardian for your children.

- Check out their qualifications carefully!
- The nominee is an adult.
- Genuinely cares for your children.
- Is physically able to do the job.
- Can afford the financial responsibility, if you cannot provide enough money.
- Shares your values, morals and religious beliefs.

The court will name a guardian for your children. If you have no will, the court will not know who you want for a guardian.
