TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Re: Tax Exempt Status of the University of Arkansas

Dear Sir or Madam:

The University of Arkansas ("University"), of which the "University of Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service" is a unit, is a state institution of higher education established under Arkansas law. With regard to the deductibility of gifts, it is an organization described within Internal Revenue Code 170(b)(1)(A)(v), in that it is described in IRC 170(c)(1). The University also falls within Code 170(b)(1)(A) (other than under subsections vii and viii). It may also fall within the provisions of IRC 170(b)(1)(A)(ii) as an educational organization. It has been exempt from federal income tax for many years as an instrumentality of the State of Arkansas under Internal Revenue Code 115. A copy of a letter from the IRS dated March 23, 1948 acknowledging the University’s tax-exempt status is attached.

Sincerely,

Fred H. Harrison
General Counsel

Gentlemen:

Reference is made to the information furnished for use in determining your status for Federal income tax purposes.

The information shows that you are owned, maintained and operated as an instrumentality of the State of Arkansas, and as such, are not subject to Federal income tax.

Contributions made to you are deductible by individual donors in arriving at their taxable net income in the manner and to the extent provided by section 23(e) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts, and by corporate donors in the manner and to the extent provided by section 23(q) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

Bequests, legacies, devises or transfers, to or for your use are deductible in arriving at the value of the net estate of a decedent for estate tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided by sections 2032(a) and 2053(a)(3) of the Code and/or corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts. Gifts of property to you are deductible in computing net gifts for gift tax purposes in the manner and to the extent provided in section 1001(a)(2)(a) and 1001(b)(1) of the Code and/or corresponding provisions of prior revenue acts.

The collector of internal revenue for your district is being advised of this action.

By direction of the Commissioner.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) E. I. McLaRney
Deputy Commissioner

E. Smith/Js 3/25/48
